

Multi One Attitude
Foundation

RACE FOR WATER

FORUM

Ocean Racing, a platform for sustainability?

FRIDAY 25 MARCH 2011 – 9.00am–12.30pm

La Cité de la Voile Eric Tabarly at Lorient – France

Forum conducted by Walter Bouvais – Co-founder and director of Terra Eco publication

08.30am–09.00am Host welcoming

09.00am–09.15am Opening Ceremony

Walter Bouvais

09.15am–10.50am SESSION 1 – THE INDUSTRY

1.1 Waterfootprint and life cycle analysis

Dimitri Caudrelier

Introduction to Water Footprint and life cycle analysis. MOD70 case study.

1.2 Biomaterials – A solution to consider?

Christophe Baley

The researches and challenges of bio composite.

Julien Marin

The 'mini Araldite' project (flax fiber accounts for 75 to 80% of the reinforcement).

Round table conducted by Catherine Chabaud

Roland Jourdain, Vincent Lauriot Prévost, Nicolas Baral, Julien Marin, Christophe Baley

10.50am–11.00am Networking Refreshment

11.00am–12.00pm SESSION 2 – THE WATER

2.1. Ocean preservation

Maria Hood

The UNESCO programmes and environmental protection issues.

Jean-Claude Le Bleis

The 'CANOE' project - océanographiques data collection

2.2. Multi One Attitude Foundation

Anne Cécile Turner & Stève Ravussin

The Multi One Attitude Foundation philosophy and its program

12.00pm–12.30pm Closing address – Manifesto

Walter Bouvais

12.30pm–2.00pm Networking lunch at Quai Ouest Restaurant

21.00pm–22.00pm Public show and christening of the MOD 70 nr 1 Race for Water

Please register your interest at:

<http://www.eurolarge.fr/formulaire-inscription-forum-la-course-au-large-plateforme-de-developpement-durable/>

Nothing, perhaps not even climate change, will matter more to humanity's future on this planet
Fred Pearce, Science Journalist

<http://www.multioneattitude.com>